Maynard Goldman will be our featured speaker.

His topic is "The PGA Tour and the Saudi LIV Challenge."

Maynard holds a B.A. in Political Science and Economics from the University of Michigan and a J.D. Degree from Harvard Law School. A longtime political consultant on both sides of the aisle, he has worked on projects for Gerald Ford, Michael Dukakis, Ted Kennedy and Tip O'Neill and received appointments from Republican and Democratic Governors.

Although Maynard's resume doesn't show it, he is a sports enthusiast and follows both golf and baseball diligently. Indeed, his experience in politics has sensitized him to the shenanigans in sports. He has given numerous well received courses, including some pertaining to sports, under the auspices of Osher at Dartmouth and has served on many boards including the Board of Directors of Eastman, the Wang Center, Boston Zoological Society and Mass Eye and Ear.
